

Outline Format

Name: _____

Title: _____

I. Intro

a. What is your paper about?

i. _____

ii. _____

iii. Thesis—_____

b. What do you hope to accomplish? (3rd person)

i. _____

ii. _____

iii. _____

II. Source 1

a. What is the source? (Cite in MLA format—copy from source or use citationmachine.net)

b. What are two important ideas from this source?

i. _____

ii. _____

c. What quote will you use and how will you relate it to your topic/thesis?

i. _____

ii. _____

d. Why is this important?

i. _____

ii. _____

III. Source 2

a. What is the source? (Cite in MLA format—copy from source or use citationmachine.net)

b. What are two important ideas from this source?

i. _____

ii. _____

c. What quote will you use and how will you relate it to your topic/thesis?

i. _____

ii. _____

d. Why is this important?

i. _____

ii. _____

IV. Source 3

a. What is the source? (Cite in MLA format—copy from source or use citationmachine.net)

b. What are two important ideas from this source?

i. _____

ii. _____

c. What quote will you use and how will you relate it to your topic/thesis?

i. _____

ii. _____

d. Why is this important?

i. _____

ii. _____

V. Source 4

a. What is the source? (Cite in MLA format—copy from source or use citationmachine.net)

b. What are two important ideas from this source?

i. _____

ii. _____

c. What quote will you use and how will you relate it to your topic/thesis?

i. _____

ii. _____

d. Why is this important?

i. _____

ii. _____

VI. Conclusion

a. What have your sources told the audience about your topic?

i. _____

ii. _____

b. How has this proved your point about the topic?

i. _____

ii. _____

c. What has the audience learned from your essay?

i. _____

ii. _____